WASHINGTON JOCKEY CLUB. The Spring Meeting of the Washington Jockey Club March 23 to April 14, is almost upon us and every day is a busy one at the pretty race course at Bennings. The stables are filling up and by Monday next, opening day, there will not be a vacant stall on the track and the accomodations in the village of Bennings for both man and beast will also be taxed to their utmost capacity. C. W. Leavitt, ir, the landscape gardener and race track con-Saturday putting on the finishing touches. On the track itself he hauled sand for all the wet places where the clay does not dry out fast enough. The lawn of the Club House and first turn have been decorated with trees, shrubs, the general appearance of things. Mr. Leavitt says, "I do not consider the top-soil of the Bennings track a mistake by any means, in fact I think, after the track thoroughly settles and the superintendent has really good dry weather to thoroughly and constantly work it, it will be one of the safest, best and fastest tracks in America."

Clerk of the Course Crickmore has issued the programme book for the first twelve days and the conditions generally should suit all comers. Purses have been materially increased and each day presents 2 most varied programme. The two-year-olds which will fill the events for the baby racers will come from the stables of F. R. Hitchcock, The Columbia stables, J. E. Lane, William Jennings, the Pepper stable, Col. Edward Morrell, P. S. P. Randolph (all of these now en the grounds), August Belmont, which stable will arrive tomorrow from their winter quarters at Garnett, S. C.: the Goughaere stable, now wintering at Cape Charles, Va., and due to arrive on the 20th; W. C. Daly, James McLaugh-lin's stable of forty horses, Mrs. R. Bradley and the New Orleans contigent including the Morris-Walden stable. One of the facts most commented on reached a certain among owners and trainers at the advanced stage track is the large number of steeplechasers now at Bennings and the ng except the grave.

Gwyn Thompkins has a large stable, the property of J. V. Colt and Jno. D. Hooe; Trainer and Jeckey Fitzsimmons has twelve, chiefly the property of Col. Edward Morrell; James Frayling has been schooling several in his stable, William Garth has two, James D. Hall of Virginia four, Mr. Robert Taylor, the gentleman rider, frem Baltimore, has his stable at the track as has "Sid" Holloway. The Canadian contingent is composed of land, just as it angered the Queen. Trainer Sykes with four; Chas. Ray three and Mr. Price three. Jos. Schiadt has several and all in all there are fully one hundred jumpers billed for the Bennings meeting. The principal steeple nings meeting. The principal topics at the track are the Bennings Spring Handicaps which have closed with 50 entries and should bring out a field of ten or a dozen starters. It is conceded that the Daly pair, Himself and Daly, will be the favorites and we hear that the Sage of Hartford thinks he will run one-two, but again each day as Lady Granville Gordon's and the di we hear new rumors of opposition from some unexpected source. Laughlin is keeping very quiet and he has several in well enough. From way down in Virginia we hear that Bradle has something going great guns and he has but one entry. On a fast track Jas. Robertson's Syrlin will be'a hard horse to beat. There is a mare at the track that will have but 100 lbs. on her back and she beat McChesney when he was good and made him hang up a record the next time they met to beat her a head. Little Early Eva is honest and true and is looking finely. Sergeant looks the class of the race but he will hardly start. All the New Orleans entries will surely have the advantage of being seasoned and the fact that horse racing is very uncertain is true of the Bennings Handicaps, but we will know more one week from today.

SEEKING TITLE TO VIRGINIA LAND. C. W. Tebeau, of Norfolk, has filed application in Buchanan county, under the land grabbers' act, for two hundred thousand acres of land, on which is situated the county seat. The land stands in the name of Frederick Pearson, but is said to have belonged to Gen. Benjamin F. Butler, he having bought it in 1873 or 1874 in another's name, owing to the hatred for him in the State. It is said that Tebeau has agreed to dispose of his deed, if he se-cures one, to the Hocking Valley Coal Company for $150,000, out of which he will pay taxes of $60,000 to the State. Of course they do. It is their way of learning and it is your duty to answer. You may need a dictionary to aid you.
